

Mexican Sugar Skull

"The Day of the Dead" is a holiday celebrated in Mexico on November 1st and 2nd.

These decorated skulls really are made out of sugar!

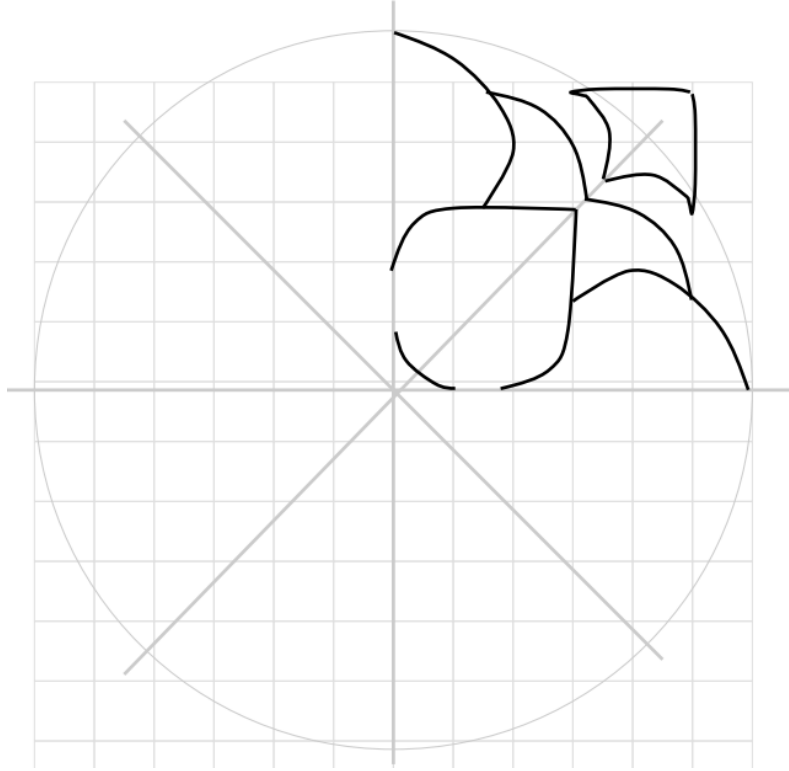

It's thought that the spirits of loved ones returned to earth from heaven, to visit with their relatives.

Complete the unfinished side of the sugar skull "calavera" so it matches the other side, then color it!

Picture 1:

Complete the picture so all four quadrants look the same, then color your drawing!

Picture 2:

Complete the picture so all eight sections look the same, then color your drawing!

